

BIAS: An Ethical Approach

Friday, February 5, 2016

1pm – 7pm

This 6-hour session includes:

- Identifying the difference between morals and ethics
- Understanding how biases affect interpreting
- Examining personal biases and how they affect the message
- Analyzing the CPC and improve critical thinking skills

*All proceeds will support the CODA Austin 2016 conference.

Strict limit of 40 participants

$50.00

0.6 BEI and RID
CEUs

Presenter—Amber D. Farrelly

Practicing Criminal Trial Attorney and Counselor at Law
BEI Advanced and Court Certified Interpreter

Amber received her BA from the University of Oklahoma and her Juris Doctorate from Arizona State University with the highest distinction for her pro bono work.

Amber is licensed and practices throughout the state of Texas. She has represented over 300 deaf clients in her career and has assisted in cases across the country. She has testified as an expert in both deaf and interpreting issues. She has taught numerous legal and ethical interpreting workshops throughout the U.S. She is dedicated to and an advocate for the Deaf.

Register at www.coda-international.org/donate. *Click on the “Add to Cart” button
For questions, contact conference@coda-international.org.

Location: Texas School for the Deaf Multipurpose Room
1102 S. Congress Ave, Austin, Texas 78704

